Refund Policy:

- INITIAL
- 1) Up to 30 days before the training, tuition is refundable less a $50 administrative fee. All refund requests must be made in writing via email. Please follow up with a phone call as soon as the email has been sent.
 - 2) Within 30 days of the training, no refunds will be issued unless the training is full and the vacancy can be filled from the waiting list. Refunds issued under this circumstance will be made less a $100 administrative fee.
 - 3) After the training begins, no refunds will be made for reasons of change due to personal circumstances including medical emergencies. This is because vacancies arising after the start of the training cannot be filled.
 - 4) Due to EMDRIA requirements, participants must attend all training days. It is not possible to make exceptions. If a participant fails to attend even one training day, they will need to re-register, repeat the training, and pay for tuition again. In the case of severe and extenuating circumstances (e.g. documented illness, hospitalization, bereavement), accommodations may be made to enable the participant to complete the required training hours without having to pay tuition again. A non-negotiable transfer fee of $150 will be charged to transfer the participant to another cohort.
 - 5) Participants are expected to complete the training within 1 year from the start of the training. If more than 1 year passes, and the participant has not successfully completed the training, they are required to re-register to re-take the training and pay the tuition fee again.
 - 6) Participants who fail to successfully complete a training session due to violation of the Participant Agreement will not be able to proceed in the training. They must withdraw or be withdrawn from the training. In this case, advanced payment made for any future training sessions will be refunded. The cost of the training session(s) which have not been successfully completed will not be refunded. Decisions about successful completion of training session(s) are at the sole discretion of the Director of Training.
